Dear Friends,
Greetings from France.

I am here for 3 months and the 15th of September I will go to Holland.

I help in the technical department of the conference center;

From the 6th–14th of August we have had the conference in the tent. It was a blessed time, see picture. See the link above for more pictures which I have taken.

My job in the tent during the conference was to do the registration of all the video in the little tent on the left. Also setting it up and making sure all technical things work well. With 4 cameras we recorded all and put it on DVD. On the picture I am introducing a French couple, of our volunteer team, to the work during a meeting, so they can learn how to do it also.

Prayer request for my father

On the picture my parents are in the hospital on July 3rd. On that moment my dad has had a tumor removed including part of his colon. My mom sitting with her arm in a sling because she made a nasty fall, thank God she is ok again now. We as a family are thankful to the Lord that my dad has come this far thru the difficult past time. My dad is now undergoing chemotherapy with pills. We pray for complete recovery. His life is in Gods hand. The "Youth group Mission Outreach" to the Ukraine this summer went well without my dad joining.

The 26th of October I will go to Chile via Curacao, to get married on 11-11-2011 with Jennifer Sanchez in Chile. Jeny and I will go fulltime into missions.

Jeny has already gotten a wedding dress and we have gotten a honeymoon trip to "Tierra Del Fuego, FireLand", the southern tip of South America. Speaking of; "Go into the ends of the earth".

Afterwards we will go to Indonesia on the 22nd of January to work as technical missionaries in the Mission-Hospital of Borneo.

For that we trust in The Lord that He will provide for the travel costs.

On the way we will go via Colombia and Curacao with the opportunity to congratulate us on the 7th of January on Curacao. After Indonesia we will be in Holland with the opportunity to congratulate us on the 1st of July 2012. You are invited for all these 3 dates; details will follow.

People ask; "What kind of gift would you like for your wedding?" My answer is, a small gift per month which last for a long time is better than a onetime gift because it is better for our long term ministry being in a far country.

We want to serve God fulltime in His ministry and reach out in this world to help people in need.

The 13th of September is my 49th birthday.

I will celebrate it on Saturday the 17th of September. You are very welcome between 3 – 9 pm. At my parents home; Buitenhof 33 8255AW Swifterbant. It is also my goodbye-being-single party.
